This week:

Year 4 put on a brilliant show this afternoon to their parents – we were very proud! We are looking forward to seeing you all at parents evening next Tuesday and Thursday. Some of our school Governors will be in the school hall for parents to meet and to liaise with.

Have a lovely weekend.

Fun Run

This week Y3 attended a Fun Run hosted by St Catherine of Siena. Five girls and five boys from each class were selected to compete in the elite element of the afternoon, earning points for our school. The children cheered each other enthusiastically, encouraging their peers to sprint for the finish! In both the girls and boys races we had runners finishing in the top 5, three children winning medals.

Once the elite races were over it was time for the Fun Run itself, the children's stamina and 'I can' attitude really paid off and all the children completed the long, hilly run. Abbots were announced as overall winners of the afternoon! Well done to all in Y3, you were a credit to the school.

If your child enjoyed this running event, please sign them up for the Watford Harriers race on the 30th March at Cassiobury Park. Please reference Abbots Langley School when signing up.

TT Rockstars

This week's winners were Year 3 and Year 5! Our most valuable players were Logan Hicks, Mason Ewen-Hambrook, Holly Hayes, Oscar Gowers, Mia Gravatt, Varun Malhotra, Samuel Sobolak, Otis Pushong, Daniel Miladinov, Isla Deradour, Page Bassam and James Hailstone. Great work!

Well done to 4 Rowling who have the most active players.
